Start a Journal

Journaling is a great way for kids, teens, and adults to practice their literary skills and explore their emotions. No matter your age, keeping a journal is a great way to think deeply about your feelings and reflect on your day. This week we have included a journal for you to decorate and start a writing or drawing routine.

Here are some ideas to get you started:

Ideas for Children

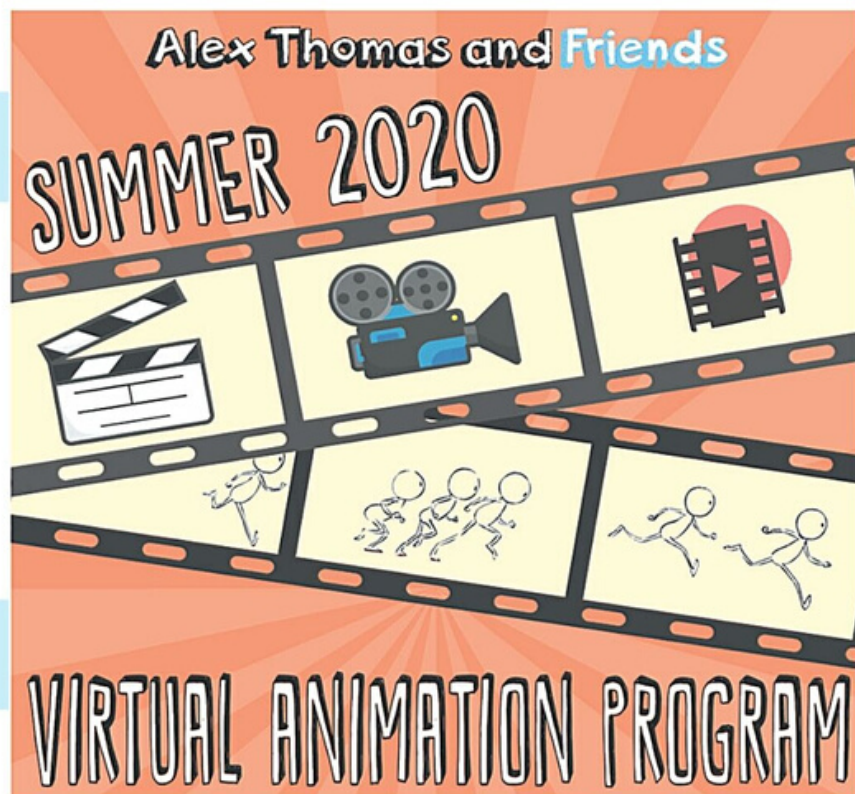

- The best book I ever read was...
- When I grow up, I want to...
- The most interesting place I have been to was...
- Name three things you don't like about school and why?
- The strangest dream I ever had was...
- The person I admire most is...
- When I turn 16, I will...
- Who is the funniest member of your family, why?
- I get scared when...
- Five things I would do if I had more money are...
- What is your favorite sport and why?
- What would you do to change the world?
- Dear teacher, I would like to know...
- My happiest day was...
- My saddest day was...
- If I had three wishes, I would wish for...

Ideas for Teens

- Do you act differently online than in real life?
- Do you think the town you've grown up in has influenced the person you are?
- Would you rather stay up late or get up early?
- What is something that you believe in strongly?
- Are you good at keeping secrets?
- Why or why not?
- Write about a time when you were surprised.
- Choose five symbols or objects that represent you.
- Why did you choose these things?
- How do you tell if someone is telling the truth?
- What does it mean to be a family?
- What inspires you?
- Do you want to have kids when you get older?
- Would you rather read a book or watch a movie version of a story?
- What is the hardest thing you've ever had to learn?

Art Journal Ideas for All Ages

-  Draw something that makes you happy.
-  Draw something you couldn't live without.
-  Draw someone who helps you.
-  Draw something that makes you smile.
-  Draw something you love to do.
-  Draw something you are thankful for.
-  Draw someone you love.
-  Draw something you think is fun.
-  Draw something that makes you feel good.
-  Draw something that makes you laugh.

Learn to create your very own 2-D animations.

Tune in to our Facebook page this week or use the links below to learn how to easily build an animation frame by frame using this FREE software. Video will be available for use from June 8 -13 on your own time at your own pace. This is a great STEAM activity that allows kids to explore their imagination!

FREE software: <https://www.pencil2d.org>.
